WE wouldcommend all who desire to obtain a ca unbiased, and historical comprehen of the present condition Per Kang-chi, at 5 p.m. To-morrow, the of Irelands read the able paper from the pen of A. Froude, the historian, which takarst place in the September ginning we Henry the Second, seven centuries pe, the writer shows how, by the biling of changing governments andy the almost invariable adoption alf-measures on the part of every rulepept Cromwell, the "bash" known ashe present state of Ireland" has been hight about. As the successive blers and mis-government of various as and parties drove the leaveningotestant element from the country timerica, the "Protestant ascendences it is called stopped short at the me and southern districts. "Ireland the Irish" is here con- last night, after being in the Cosmopolitan clusively we to be a cruel mockery, Dock since Saturday last. and to haven so for many centuries. It is true inuch legislation that was nothing buvious or jealous oppression prosperity that occasionally visited the Emerald Isle; but the great curse of Island, according to Froude, is to tive, the fatal liberty which has been too long permitted to the masses. A strong Government such as that furnished by the great Ironside was the sine qua non for the rollicking Irish boy; and there is ample reason for regret on 'Ireland's account that the Commonwealth did not continue, if all be true which Mr Froude lays down. Every concession which England granted to Ireland was, it is asserted, as assuredly mistaken as it was made; and the hankering after the land that was confiscated by the Saxon lords has ever been the ruling passion of the peasants of this incomprehensible country. Even to this day, we are informed, the poorest labourers in the bog bequeathe to their sons lands that have been forfeited for centuries; so that a too great and overliteral love of the Fatherland degenerates into something so mixed as to be described only as "Irish," a combination of drollery, devotion and lawlessness which is altogether unique. Mr Froude leads up to the most crushing conclusion that, while Beaconsfield slurred over the Irish Land Question from a lack of interest in the subject, Gladstone is now hurrying on the most hopeless anarchy by his policy of concession. The huge blunder of encouraging and sanctioning what may be termed the permanent Irish "bulls" regarding the possession of land, is about to be repeated. So says Froude, and that writer appears to us to have studied the whole subject historically in a way which we have not seen hitherto. "The one indispensable requirement in Ireland is authority armed with power to make the law obeyed.' This will probably be admitted to be as true as it is well and forcibly put; but the sentence receives emphatic and weighty corroboration by the course of events in Ireland since it was written. Mr Forster comes in for a large share of the condemnation passed by Mr Froude upon the seven-hundred-years mistaken Government of Ireland; and the passages in which the utter and radical fallacies of his Compensation Bill are so clearly and powerfully pointed out have a refreshing air of independence and freedom from party spirit that is worthy of the great historian. In the view of Irish history, the feeling encouraged by the Bill that the right of an Irish landlord is not the same as that of an English or Scotch land-owner, is, in Mr Froude's opinion, the most dangerous doctrine that could possibly be laid down by any Government having power over Ireland. And yet this is exactly what Mr Forster's bill does. "Mr Forster may congratulate himself that he has brought on a crisis in the Irish land question more momentons than any which has occurred since the renewal of the Act of Settlement after the Treaty of Limerick." Thus Mr Froude; and the telegram which we publish this evening seems to bear out every word of the article so far as trouble is concerned. What ought to be done by an Administration as to Ireland and the Irish people is thus most sensiby put by the writer referred to, and, in view of the arrests of the Land League leaders elsewhere reported, it will appear to be almost prophetic:--In Ireland, as everywhere else in this world, there is a minority of sensible, loval, well-intentioned people of all creeds who understand what are the real conditions under which their country can prosper. A Government which will win the confidence of such men as these, and try to do what they would wish to see done, instead of bidding for the Irish vote in Parliament by submitting to the dictation of pseudo-patriots and patrons of assassination—a Government which would make the law respected and obeyed, which would hang murderers caught in the act, would insist on hanging them, and, if juries would not convict, would call on Parliament to suspend trial by jury in Ireland, and pass suit the files of local, China, Japan, an Act for trying of criminals by a commission of judges—such a Government would repeat the miracle of St. Patrick and drive the devils out of the country. As soon as the "Cana Mail" Office, where over authority had been properly asserted, and a resolution to do justice cannot be misinterpreted into cowardice, the land laws might from the countries, are now filed for then be dispassionately revised, with a resolution to consider only what would tend most to make the people of Ireland really prosperous. Wr learn that Mr Klampermeyer, whose audden disappearance from this Colony caused some lamentation-several months ago amongst too confiding creditors, is now carrying on a hotel at Canton.

On Tuesday last at 9 a.m. a body of men from one of the Chinese cruisers boarded the Ichang at Cap-sing-moon, expecting from information received to lay their hands on 300 palls of opium; they were successful, however, in securing only 13.

THE original statement we published on Saturday last that the S. S. Belgic, with mails &c. from San Francisco to the 2nd inst., would leave Yokohama for this port on the following day, turns out to be correct after all, and the later intimation made that the date of departure was the 26th was uncalled-for and inaccurate.

One of the new officers on board of one of the Chinese Customs cruisers, shot dead, on Tuesday last, a Chinaman who was in the act of carrying off a bag containing ton balls of opium thrown overboard from the Tung Ting, on the passage from Macao. He is now being tried by the Consul.

THE school-boy . Yahap Careen, who, it may be remembered by our readers, was committed for trial at the Supreme Court, not otherwise, on the 20th of Sept. last, on a charge of having written and sent to the complainant Police Sergeant Wong Ayau a threatening personally liable for costs. letter demanding money to the amount of $20, without any excuse, has been dis- | Court. charged, the Attorney General not considoring the evidence produced sufficiently strong to bring the case before a Jury.

WE learn that Mr Herbert A. Giles, H. B. has lately been freely mixed up with prooccdings of a legal or illegal nature, is beginning to find that, when a mistake is made, even by a Consular official, it is not "stiff-weckedness." In these days, when lawyers, and appeal Courts, and the "pestilent fellows of the Press" are everywhere, the old Consular style of independent action-independent, that of check and occasionally of Justicewhich revelled in "blessing your eyes," and using the big, big D, with the greatest effect, must be looked up in as passed away. Kyen a British Consul must now be fairly courteous and calm in his manner due to the estate of the Bankrupt. towards his loyal nationals; otherwise troubles come. It must be admitted that they have come in a rather marked manner upon Mr Giles; and their force cannot be felt the less because that able and soh larly being made, they showed that he was due thank for the situation. In the appeal case at Shaughai, against Mr Giles, we learn that the defendant has paid into the Court there the £5000 which the owners of the Cheang Hok King have sued him for, i e for the amount of the fine which Mr Giles, as Acting Consul, had imposed (illegally as alleged) upon them. The final result of the Court, as he (the Registrar) held it should case will be looked for with interest. believe Mr Giles meant to do his duty on of the Chief Justice it was brought on in the occasion in question; but he failed to perceive with clearness what that duty was.

THE following details are given in the pa. pers to hand to-day from the North as to lunteers and Hongkong Teams. At the 200 yards range the weather was all that could be desired; however, at the 500 yards range a nasty bailing wind arose which greatly marred the shooting, it being next to an impossibility to make certain from which quarter the wind was blowing, and the shooting somewhat fell off. The scores are given as follows :-

FAIR PLAY

To the Rditor of the " CHINA MAIL."

Canton, Oct. 28th. Son,-Returning from a country trip I we noticed a fetter signed "An Old Sportaappearing in your columns of 7th The effusion in quastion purports to a criticism on a paragraph which appeared in the China Mail of 6th inst., respecting cricket match England v. Australia, p'ayed in London on 6th, 7th, and 8th

" An Old Sportsman" writes, " the hitherto unbeaten Austrdians got as sound a demblung as their predecessors invarianty ad when they met the cles of the old country in fair fight" Invariably ! I refer your correspondent to the results of the matches played by "their predeciseors" Marylebone, Y ik here (first mate), Middiesex, Sussex, Players, and Gloucester--matches in which the Australians met very strong Elevens and won. So the wirds "sound doubling" are meaningless in such connection. But as it is implied that in the late motel the Australians received a "sound drubbing," I refer to Bell's Life of Sopt. 11th, which says that those who did not attend on the third day lost " the excitement attendant upon a close of Kogland's wickets had fallen for 31 runs, " short o tds would bave been take ; about their (angland's) getting the runs" (57) required. The Field has respecting England's s cond innings -" Two for 10 And a fear aim at too dreauful to think of took possession of mary of the spec a ors " "A: O.d Sportsman " success at your Australian correspondent knowing at such an early date the names of the English players, and dues not consider it are essay to notice " the twaddle he writes about the quartette of 'non such' bowlers, and the prince wicket keepers, and the fine felding of the whole team" In August the names of the team selected to do battle for England were known in Melbourne F om Melbourne to Hongkong news travels by steam r in from 20 to 30 days. The paragraph of your Australian corresponsent was written on October 5th, and the full reports of the match only go to show that he was quite justified in writing as he did of kugland's Leven. R specting " the prince of wicketkeeper's" - Bells Life has "Blackham, who is a most facile princeps as a wicket kouper. tegardin, "the fine fielding of the whole team," the same authority contains-"the fielding was excellent," and "more bri liana fie.ding was never seen," ie " the last sentence in your Australian's precious epuation at which the virtuous indignation of "An Old Sportsman" boils over, and which he stigmatizes "as a contemptible fabrication, devoid of even the shadow of truth," and invites "a tittle of evidence" to support such an assertion, winding up by very unjustry implying that 'your Australian" consected the or posed assertion with the beating of the Australian il in the great match. The columns of this newspaper are not the proper place for bringing forth such evidence as is called for by "An Old Sportsman" on a subject which interests so few. I will simply quote from a letter received from Mr H. Boyle, the nomical leader of the present Australian 11,-" We could not be treated worse if we were a set of blacklegs." The Australian eleven-did not go to England " for the (Xpress purpose of money grubbing" (whatever "money grubbing " may mean); but granting for the sake of argument that their sole desire was to make money by the trip, what has that to do with the maj rity of the crack Clubs of England objecting to play The Englishmen were not asked to receive the Australians socially, but at a game of cricket-the game at which the English cricketer boasts that class distinctions are almost completely mak. THE CHINA REVIEW.

MIHE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes de Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishere of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly tables and other intelligence as is conmodified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octave pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents Government House, North of Public in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavoure are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified togo ther as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the out ter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as bruef and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August. 1875, is at hand. It says that for ty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christiannty to the development of a Flate. All our learn ed societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the femere. Address China Review, Hongkong. - Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review ;- " This i is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hong: kong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of None and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago kas been much regretted in Europe as well as in Chins. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of informstion, rendering some such channel of pub- lars, Optical Instruments, Mordan's Patterns, 4. licity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest for Negretti & Zambra. may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chanese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, and Sportsman's Requisites of all descripamong whom a high degree of Chinose Hons,-WM. Schmitter & Co., Cianscholarship is now assiduously cultivated, I makers, bastern House of Beaconshield and who are severally represented in the heat number of the herico by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work bome translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the careor of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions Two Coultes. on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar

cluding postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3.000 and 4.000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them. The field open to a paper of this descrip tion-conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in tonein almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every ald that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorialswith Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements. Subscription orders for either of the above may be sent to

Money Grder Regulation.

I Money Orders are exchanged the United Kingdom, New South W. Queensland, South Australia and Port Corwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Phanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also issues orders on Shanghal, and vice versa.

2 - Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent, for cashing them. 3. Many Money Orders are supplied to esiden's at the smaller Ports in this way.

An application for an order* is filled up. and is enclosed with a stamped, directed, and unscaled envelope to the Postmaster at he nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variatio s of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications, in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails.

4.-No order must exceed £10, or $50. or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day | and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived.
